SYNOPSIS

Mr. Wesley J. Leibeler, Investigator, President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy, requested this office on August 11, 1964, to attempt to locate copies of news stories in New Orleans papers on or about September 9, 1963, relative to a speech by Prime Minister Fidel Castro at the Brazilian Embassy in Havana, Cuba, in which he reportedly stated that United States leaders would be in danger if they helped in any attempt to do away with leaders of Cuba, etc. News stories appearing in both local papers on September 9, 1963, relative to Castro's speech, were obtained and mailed to Mr. Leibeler on August 11, 1964.

DETAILS OF INVESTIGATION

Reference is made to previous reports submitted in this case.

On August 11, 1964, during the morning, long distance telephone call was received by reporting agent from Mr. Wesley J. Leibeler, Investigator, President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy. Mr. Leibeler advised that a Miami newspaper carried a story on September 9, 1963, relative to a speech made by Prime Minister Fidel Castro, of Cuba, at the Brazilian Embassy in Havana in which he threatened that "United States leaders would be in danger if they helped in any attempt to do away with leaders of Cuba....."

Mr. Leibeler requested that inquiry be made of the two newspapers in New Orleans to determine if they carried this story, which could have been read by Lee Harvey Oswald prior to his departure from New Orleans.
